

Musings of an artist

Bhawna Gera

Tinged with the spirit of Holi, artist Sangeeta Gupta's work was a spray of life. "I'm a positive person and the colours I use reflect that. I want to spread joy through my work," she said.

Titled Swirling, the exhibition opened recently at Kumar Gallery. The guest list included the who's who of the art world. Engrossed in the paintings, art collector Tina Uneken remarked, "Each painting shows the change in the artist's mood and the colours are simply captivating."

Sangeeta was of course pretty pleased by the response. "It feels good that your work has been appreciated. I am evolving as an artist. My new work has a greater degree of abstraction, where I say much more."

Among those seen, were artists Shobha Broota, Aarti Singh Jain, Vijay Kumar and Giovanna Mirelli Di Teora of Italian Embassy.
